

United States District Court

District of New Mexico

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

AMENDED ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING PROBATION REVOCATION HEARING

v.

Case Number: 16-CR-02929 JCH

DAVID RAYFORD

In accordance with the Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6) and 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending a final revocation hearing in this case.

Findings of Fact

- (1) The defendant is held in custody for violating probation or supervised release. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(1).
- (2) The Court held a preliminary hearing and found probable cause for some or all of allegations of violation of probation or supervised release. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(b)(1)(A).
- (3) At the detention hearing, the defendant did not establish, nor did the court find, by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the community if released under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(b) (personal recognizance or unsecured appearance bond) or (c) (release on conditions) pending further proceedings. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6); 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1).
- (4) Additional findings or explanations: In addition to the reasons stated on the record at the hearing, the defendant arrived for his first day at Diersen Residential Reentry Center under the influence of alcohol. He denied consuming alcohol, but he had waived his preliminary hearing, and therefore the Court found probable cause that he had consumed alcohol. In addition, there was no dispute that defendant thereafter left Diersen, and that his whereabouts became unknown. Defendant's supervised release had previously been revoked for a DWI offense in October 2019. The defendant did not establish by clear and convincing evidence that he was not a danger to the community.

ORDER OF DETENTION

Therefore, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6), the defendant shall be and is ordered detained pending a revocation hearing.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility pending a revocation hearing. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
